

SAVE THE DATE

Nuestra Salud

“Bringing Behavioral Health Best Practices to Latino Communities”

A SERIES OF LIVE SPANISH WEBCASTS

ABOUT THE WEBCASTS

The Substance Abuse Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) and the Center for Substance Abuse Treatment (CSAT) in partnership with the National Latino Behavioral Health Association (NLBHA) is proud to announce an upcoming FREE 4-part Live Webcast Series in Spanish - Nuestra Salud: Bringing Behavioral Health Best Practices to Latino Communities. Each one-hour Webcast will be moderated and broadcast in Spanish bringing together a panel of experts from across the U.S. to discuss important and relevant Latino behavioral health topics.

CONNECT WITH US

 LIVE <https://goo.gl/C1x3if>

 @NLBHAORG

National Latino Behavioral Health Association NLBHA

Please invite others by sharing this with your contacts
<https://goo.gl/kyjkxi>

April 16, 2018
12-1pm MT

Trauma Informed Practices and Latino Populations: Getting to the Core

The webcast will focus on the incidence of trauma and its impact on the Latino family. This show will discuss how trauma promulgates mental and substance use disorders, and its impact on the family and the community.

April 16, 2018
4-5pm MT

Latino Communities and the Opioid Crisis: How Are We Coping?

This webcast will deal address the opioid crisis within the Latino communities. Myths and truths concerning the impact opioids have on every level of the economic strata will be discussed as well as how the Latino communities are addressing the issue.

May 7, 2018
12-1pm MT

Substance Use Disorder Prevention and Treatment: Best and Promising Practices for Latinos

The webcast shall delineate the definition of SUD as a disease and why it is particularly important for addiction to be emphasized as a disease.

May 7, 2018
4-5pm MT

Recovery and Peer Engagement: Are we reaching Latinos?

This webcast addresses the need for the Hispanic community to come together to address mental and substance use disorder from a recovery oriented SOC perspective. It should emphasize the importance of early intervention as a principle to support.